17 March 2026, Mauritius – This Easter, The Lux Collective presents a thoughtfully curated programme across its resorts in Mauritius, where each property reimagines the season through its own distinctive lens. From beachfront feasts and playful egg hunts to immersive wellness journeys and refined culinary showcases, the award-winning hospitality group offers families, couples and wellness seekers a celebration that is both vibrant and deeply meaningful.

LUX* Grand Baie: Contemporary energy meets holistic renewal

This Easter, LUX* Grand Baie sets the tone with a high-energy celebration that blends cutting-edge wellness, vibrant gastronomy and rooftop-to-beachfront experiences. Guests can explore diverse culinary experiences across signature restaurants, from Mediterranean and Moroccan inspirations to Asian-fusion flavours, complemented by a festive Easter Sunday Brunch and a beachfront Island Vibes evening. Creative workshops for both children and adults, an exciting family egg hunt and pool party, rooftop fitness sessions, and the energetic LUX* HYROX Experience brings rhythm to the programme. At the heart of the celebration, the LUX* ME Spa introduces a Three-Day Wellness Age Reset package, a science-led immersive journey combining movement activation, energy healing and signature bodywork. Designed to restore balance, vitality and inner harmony, the experience reflects the resort's ethos of transformative wellbeing in a contemporary luxury setting.

LUX* Grand Gaube: Bold flavours and sustainable Easter artistry for every age

LUX* Grand Gaube, Easter promises a celebration of creativity – delicious, playful, and meaningful. This year, GAIA, Mauritius' first hotel pottery studio, joins forces with local artist Baba Gaïa in a unique collaboration to bring to life an exclusive hand-painted clay Easter egg inspired by the resort's tropical retro-chic design. As a symbol of local craftsmanship, sustainability and playful artistry, guests of all ages can replicate the design and treasure it as a keepsake. The artistic spirit continues in a delicious way with a signature chocolate Easter egg creation, reimagined this year by the resort's new pastry chef and inspired by the Hug Me Honey beehive experience.

Beyond the artistry, guests can savour Lobster Nights on the beach, Peruvian seafood at INTI, and a festive Easter Barbecue at the Creole Smokehouse, alongside a hands-on Rhum & Chocolate tasting and making class. Younger guests can enjoy Easter Olympics and creative crafts at PLAY before joining a lively beachside Foam Party, while chocolate-infused spa rituals – from the Chocolate & Honey Cocoon to the indulgent Chocolate Wrap – offer a soothing balance to the festive energy.

LUX* Belle Mare: A week of celebration by the sea

From 30 March to 6 April, LUX* Belle Mare hosts a week-long Easter programme set against its iconic beachfront. Daily wellness sessions, engaging Kids & Teens activities and enriching experiences are thoughtfully curated to create meaningful moments for all ages. Culinary experiences take centre-stage throughout the week. Mondo presents international flavours and live cooking stations in a relaxed setting, while Duck Laundry offers refined Chinese cuisine in an intimate atmosphere. Amari by Vineet showcases progressive Indian gastronomy in an elegant beachfront environment, and Beach Rouge transitions seamlessly from laid-back daytime dining to chic Mediterranean-inspired evenings. This year, the celebration is enhanced by a special creation from Pastry Chef Pascal, who crafts artisanal Easter eggs using locally sourced Mauritian cacao. Made entirely on-site, from bean to chocolate, these creations feature 70% cacao and reflect the resort's commitment to craftsmanship, sustainability and local sourcing. Easter Sunday stands as a highlight, with a festive Easter Sunday Breakfast and a special Easter Feast at Mondo, bringing families together in true LUX* style.

LUX* Le Morne: Nature, flavour and barefoot elegance

Set on the dramatic UNESCO world heritage site where Le Morne Brabant mountain rises above a tranquil lagoon, LUX* Le Morne celebrates Easter through nature-inspired rituals, refined dining and barefoot family traditions. Guests can enjoy a lavish seaside Easter Brunch at The Beach, featuring Mauritian-style charcoal grills and nostalgic sweet treats, alongside a vibrant buffet at The Kitchen and refined dining experiences at EAST and KAWAII. For couples seeking intimacy, the signature Tree House unveils an exclusive tasting menu served in a unique setting within an almond tree. Young travellers will enjoy a lively Easter egg hunt and talent show at PLAY, while evenings unfold with Mauritian rum tastings and live music at the Bar. At LUX* ME Spa, the Magnifique Family package offer invites parents and children to unwind side by side through bespoke treatments designed for all ages.

SALT of Palmar: An unforgettable weekend of gastronomy, wellness and entertainment

On the east coast, SALT of Palmar's Easter celebration blends creativity, wellness and refined gastronomy. On Saturday 4 April, guests will enjoy breakfast at The Good Kitchen before joining interactive workshops, including DIY Bath Fizz and Easter cookie initiation at The Communal Table. The afternoon continues with delights from SALT Bakery and a stylish sundowner at the Rooftop Bar, followed by live entertainment by saxophonist Leonardo Milano. In the evening, guests can experience refined à la carte dining or enjoy an exclusive six-course whisky pairing dinner at TekTek.

On Easter Sunday 5 April, celebrations include Easter egg painting, a beachside egg hunt, games and a Social Easter BBQ lunch by the sea. Guests can also participate in a festive mixology class at the Pool Bar and choose between a special four-course Easter dinner at The Good Kitchen or a six-course culinary journey at TekTek, before concluding the weekend with live entertainment with Franco.

Tamassa Bel Ombre: Joyful island spirit and festive energy

At Tamassa Bel Ombre, Easter is designed as a dynamic celebration for families and loved ones. The programme features a Family Easter Egg Hunt, a Disney Easter Parade, live entertainment at the Bandstage, face painting and interactive festive games for children, culminating in an Easter Party with DJ in a lively island atmosphere. Culinary highlights include a festive Easter Buffet at Show Restaurant and a refined five-course Easter Set Menu with wine pairing at Playa Restaurant. Exclusive Easter-themed treatments at Santosha Spa complete the experience, offering moments of relaxation amidst the celebrations.

Across Mauritius, The Lux Collective once again redefines the art of celebration, crafting an Easter programme that seamlessly balances indulgence, wellbeing and meaningful connection, for guests throughout their stay.
