LUX* South Ari Atoll Resort & Villas Celebrates All-Encompassing Love this Valentine's Day

Malé – Nothing beats romantic getaways when it comes to the Maldives, however, this Valentine's Day LUX* South Ari Atoll Resort & Villas will jazz up the day by expanding the tradition by embracing all forms of love whether it is romantic love, healthcare worker's care for patients, unconditional love between family members or very often, the kind of love people overlook - self-love. To celebrate this special day, the entire resort, from LUX* Me Spa to the resort's social media pages, will offer hands-on pampering, love-letter writing, self-love boosters and marine workshops – all starting from early morning to late evening.

The itinerary, offered as a full-day package or standalone events, covers every hour of this special day. For a special Valentine's dinner, the resort has prepared extraordinary, five-course and rose-themed champagne dinners with live music for a private dinner on the beach or at the popular Italian Restaurant Allegria, both for an additional supplement.
