

LUX* South Ari Atoll Partners with Diving Expert and Influencer Isidora Dekalo for Diving Workshops

The Maldives, 2 October 2024 – LUX* South Ari Atoll, the acclaimed resort of The Lux Collective in the Maldives, is thrilled to announce a unique collaboration with Isidora Dekalo, a leading figure in the global diving community. On 9 and 10 October 2024, Dekalo will host a series of immersive diving workshops for both seasoned divers and underwater enthusiasts.

As a PADI AmbassaDiver, DAN Europe advocate, and SCUBAPRO Global Dive Team member, Isidora brings an unparalleled level of expertise to the Maldives. Her engaging social media presence has garnered a dedicated following eager to explore the underwater world through her eyes.

Ideal for guests who are new to diving, the workshop series will feature a range of topics, from fundamental diving skills to advanced techniques. The event will kick off with an introductory evening workshop and presentation where guests will have the opportunity to experience a virtual reality diving simulation, offering a unique perspective particularly for beginners. Guests will also have the opportunity to explore the resort’s breathtaking underwater environment through lagoon and boat dives.

“I am excited to share my passion for diving and conservation with guests at LUX* South Ari Atoll,” said Isidora Dekalo. “The Maldives is a renowned diving destination, and I believe this workshop series will inspire countless individuals to discover the magic beneath the waves.”

The programme will include interesting sessions of Virtual Dive Presentation, Lagoon Discovery Scuba Diving and Open Water Boat Dive. More details as follows.

Virtual Dive Presentation (9 October 2024, 6:00 – 6:30 PM)

This complimentary session will be hosted at Senses Beach, where guests will have the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of diving and attend an engaging presentation that vividly brings the underwater world to life using impressive VR technology.

Lagoon Discovery Scuba Diving (10 October 2024, 8:30 – 10:00 AM & 10:30 AM – 12:00 PM)

With a maximum of eight participants per session, guests can discover the fundamentals of scuba diving with two morning sessions in the Resort's tranquil lagoon—perfect for beginners curious to explore the underwater world. Fee apply.

Open Water Boat Dive (10 October 2024, 2:15 – 4:30 PM)

Catering to a maximum of 16 participants, guests will embark on an open water boat dive workshop, which offers the chance to dive deeper and experience the thrill of open water exploration. Lagoon training is required in order to join this session. Fee apply.

With over 50 diverse dive sites, including caves, tunnels, passageways, and shipwrecks, LUX* South Ari Atoll provides unrivalled opportunities for guests to explore the surrounding marine life. This collaboration with Isidora Dekalo perfectly complements the Resort's dedication to offering unique experiences for guests to deepen their connection with the marine world.
