Mauritius, 01 November 2022 – LUX* Grand Gaube elevates its wellness experience with the launch of its Wellness Junior Suites on November 1, 2022. An assortment of health-focused perks and amenities await guests in the Wellness Junior Suite, to enhance the body, mind, and nutritional well-being. With an integrated wellness programme, the modern room category provides a holistic setting for serenity and calm.

Upon arrival, guests will be ushered to a beach-house style, retro-chic suite located in a peaceful cove, next to the tranquil adults-only area of the resort. The morning will begin with a session of deep breathing and sun salutation yoga overlooking unobstructed views of the Northern Islets, followed by a healthy breakfast spread and plant-based smoothies in the room. Yoga aficionados can take the experience further with the room amenities comprising yoga mat, strap, and block; and sign up for the weekly yoga and movement classes. Healthy mid-day snacks are available in the minibar with a supplement.

For avid fitness lovers who wish to balance holidays with sports, there are personalised training sessions at the gym or outdoor sessions at the Vitality Parcours along with free access to stand-up paddles and mountain bikes. Come evening, the Wellness Junior Suite residents can relax and unwind with a 45-minute rejuvenation spa treatment followed by unlimited access to the hydrothermal facilities at LUX* Me Spa. A special discount is extended for additional treatments. The Sleep Ritual beckons with a soothing bath turndown featuring the LUX* Signature Spicy Santal scent, along with the plush comforts of luxe linens, a pillow of choice, set in the dreamy pink-salmon walls backdrop created by renowned interior designer Kelly Hoppen.

"We believe wellness is the ultimate luxury. With our Wellness Junior Suite, we are elevating wellness to another level for our guests' health and well-being. Our destination-specific wellness
